

Fulbright-Hays 2017 summer seminar in Jordan and Israel

Now Accepting Applications!

Mississippi State University has been awarded a grant through the U.S. Dept. of Education Fulbright-Hays program to support Middle Eastern Studies at MSU. Our project will bring MSU students, faculty, and local K-12 teachers to Israel and Jordan for 4.5 weeks in Summer, 2017 to learn about the region through the lens of museums, memory, and heritage. During our time abroad, participants will visit museums, archaeological sites, and universities and will meet with museum staff, cultural heritage professionals, archaeologists, and Middle East scholars.

All MSU faculty, graduate students, and sophomores, juniors, & seniors are eligible to apply

Applications are due January 15, 2017

Find out more at:
middleeasternstudies.msstate.edu
or contact Dr. Kate McClellan (kmcclellan@anthro.msstate.edu) or Dr. Jimmy Hardin (jimmy.hardin@msstate.edu) for more information

